What is Parenting with Love and Logic?

LOVE

allows children to grow through their mistakes

LOGIC

allows children to live with the consequences of their choices

Parenting the Love and Logic Way is a 12-hour course based on the nationally recognized parenting theory that children learn best through natural consequences. When parents and children share control, children are given opportunities to develop good decision making skills. A certificate is awarded after the 12 class hours have been successfully completed.

This program is known as Parenting the Love and Logic Way, a philosophy founded by Jim Fay and Foster W. Cline, M.D., and based on the experience of a combined total of over 75 years working with and raising kids.

Many parents want their kids to be well prepared for life, and they know this means kids will make mistakes and must be held accountable for those mistakes. But these parents often fail to hold the kids accountable for poor decisions because they are afraid the kids will see their parents as being mean. The result is they often excuse bad behavior, finding it easier to hold others, including themselves, accountable for their children's irresponsibility.

Parenting with Love and Logic teaches us that we should "lock in our empathy, love, and understanding" prior to telling kids what the consequences of their actions will be. The parenting course Becoming a Love and Logic Parent teaches parents how to hold their kids
